ABOUT ME

I have gained practical and multidisciplinary experience in the communication and ux/ui sector, working in diverse contexts that have allowed me to develop solid and flexible skills. Thanks to my experience in the strategic direction of a non-profit, I have honed my ability to coordinate projects, always with a focus on objectives. I am constantly seeking new challenges, driven by curiosity and a determination to improve. This enables me to easily adapt to dynamic environments and contribute to the development of projects and teams.
